Case No. 08 Civ. 0461 (LAK)

ECF CASE

AMENDED VERIFIED COMPLAINT AND BILL IN THE NATURE OF AN INTERPLEADER¹

1. Plaintiff, Lowey Dannenberg Cohen, P.C. (formerly known as Lowey Dannenberg Bemporad Selinger & Cohen, P.C.) ("Lowey Dannenberg"), in its role as former account holder of, and party with interest in, Citibank Account No. 009977643705, titled "Lowey Dannenberg Bemporad Selinger & Cohen, P.C. as Attorneys for the Fund" (the "Fund"), the entirety of which was deposited into the registry of the Court, pursuant to order, on January 25, 2008, has filed this in rem action in the nature of a statutory interpleader action pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1335 to determine the relative interests of Plaintiff and Defendants to such Fund.

2. The Fund was originally comprised entirely of money paid into it between September 14, 2007 and October 5, 2007 by Pfizer Inc. ("Pfizer") pursuant to the terms of a settlement agreement dated as of July 12, 2007 (the "Settlement Agreement"). Pursuant to the terms of the Settlement Agreement, Pfizer eventually paid a total of $16,047,438.55 in consideration for (a) discontinuance of appeal No. 05-6249-cv in the United States Court of Appeals for the Second Circuit (the "Appeal") by two health benefit providers (the "litigating insurers") against Pfizer's subsidiary Warner Lambert Company ("Warner Lambert") (Warner Lambert and Pfizer Inc. are referred to collectively as "Pfizer") from this Court's judgment of dismissal of their claims concerning purchases of the prescription drug Rezulin, in cases Nos. 00-8064 (LAK) and 01-2466 (LAK) (the "Rezulin Litigation"); (b) the release of Rezulin-related claims by 50 other non-litigating insurers; and (c) the agreement of all 52 settling insurers to a process for settlement of future claims involving almost all other Pfizer products, including a covenant not to sue to recover certain types of claims which may accrue at any time prior to June 30, 2012 (the "Settlement").²

3. On September 14, 2007 and October 5, 2007, Pfizer wired $13,315,452.87 and $2,731,985.68, respectively (a total of $16,047,438.55) directly into the Fund by wire transfer.

²The Settlement Agreement was filed under seal as Exhibit C to Defendants', James R. Dugan, II and Stephen B. Murray d/b/a The Murray Law Firm, Memorandum of Law in Support of their Motion to Dismiss Complaint and Bill in Nature of Interpleader Filed Under Seal. DI-10.

See Exhibit 3.³ These transfers represent the entirety of the proceeds received in connection with the Settlement.

4. Pursuant to agreements between the 52 settling health insurers and their respective counsel, Plaintiff disbursed $11,621,433.27 from the Fund to the 52 settling health insurers (or to their attorneys on their behalf) between September 19, 2007 and October 22, 2007, such amounts representing all proceeds payable to the clients pursuant to their agreement.

5. No money from the Fund has ever been paid to any person, except for the $11,621,433.27 of settlement payments made to the 52 settling insurers. See Exhibit 3.

6. Pursuant to the a plan of allocation agreed to by all 52 settling insurers, after disbursement to them of their settlement amounts, all funds remaining in the account ($4,450,000 before interest) were earmarked to pay the fees, and reimburse the expenses, of the law firms whose efforts contributed to the Settlement.

7. No legal fees or disbursements have been paid. Rather, all funds in the account after payment to the 52 settling insurers remained in the account and accrued interest. On January 25, 2008, the entire amount of the account, which, with accrued interest was $4,560,588.47, was deposited into the registry of this Court pursuant to the January 24, 2008 Order of this Court, and constitutes the Fund which is the subject of this action. See Exhibits 2 and 4.

8. Plaintiff had primary responsibility for the prosecution of the Rezulin Litigation and negotiation of the Settlement over the course of the last seven years. Lowey Dannenberg dedicated approximately 6,800 lawyer and paralegal hours and approximately $200,000 of expenses to the prosecution of the Rezulin Litigation and the Settlement, and claims a substantial interest in the Fund to recover fees and expenses.

9. Because a dispute has arisen among the several lawyers claiming an interest in the Fund, Lowey Dannenberg has interpled the entire Fund into the registry of this Court. See Exhibit 2.

10. By this action, Lowey Dannenberg seeks (a) an adjudication of the relative interests of the Plaintiff and the Defendants in the Fund, and (b) a preliminary and permanent injunction, pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 2361, against Defendants James R. Dugan II and Stephen B. Murray, d/b/a The Murray Law Firm from prosecuting any separate action (outside of prosecution of their claims in this action) concerning their entitlement to fees or expenses from the Fund or other entitlement to proceeds of the Settlement, including a pending action they filed in the Civil District Court of the Parish of Orleans in New Orleans, Louisiana.

I. THE PARTIES

11. Plaintiff Lowey Dannenberg is a law firm organized as a professional corporation under the laws of the State of New York. Lowey Dannenberg's principal place of business is located in White Plains, New York, and its only other office is in Pennsylvania. Lowey Dannenberg has no office in Louisiana, no lawyers admitted to practice in Louisiana and disclaims amenability to the personal jurisdiction of courts in Louisiana. Lowey Dannenberg commenced this Action in part in its capacity as the holder of the account which housed the Fund, as to which there are competing claims. Now that the Fund has been deposited in the registry of this Court, Lowey Dannenberg's capacity is as a claimant entitled to a substantial portion of the Fund in consideration for its services which contributed to the creation of the Fund.

12. Defendant Rawlings & Associates, PLLC ("Rawlings & Associates"), is a law firm organized as a professional limited liability corporation under the laws of the State of Kentucky. Rawlings & Associates' sole place of business is located in LaGrange, Kentucky. Rawlings & Associates dedicated in excess of 1,000 lawyer and paralegal hours and more than $50,000 of expenses to the prosecution of the Rezulin Litigation and the Settlement. Rawlings & Associates also represented the majority of the 50 non-litigating insurers in the Settlement. See Exhibits 17 and 19.

13. Defendant Greg Murphy ("Murphy") is a natural person residing in East Baton Rouge, Louisiana. Mr. Murphy is an attorney licensed to practice law in Louisiana and is a shareholder in Defendant Morain & Murphy, LLC, a law firm organized as a limited liability company under the laws of the State of Louisiana with its sole office in Baton Rouge, Louisiana.

Greg Murphy and Morain & Murphy LLC are subject to the personal jurisdiction of this Court as they entered their appearances in the Rezulin Litigation, attended court conferences in the Rezulin Litigation in this District, and have consented to the jurisdiction of this Court for the purposes of this action. Greg Murphy and Morain & Murphy LLC claim an interest in the Fund in consideration of their dedication of lawyer hours and expenses to the prosecution of the Rezulin Litigation and the Settlement which led to the creation of the Fund.

14. Defendant James R. Dugan II ("Dugan") is an attorney who resides in, and is licensed to practice law in, Louisiana. Mr. Dugan is subject to the personal jurisdiction of this Court as he entered his appearance in this Court in the Rezulin Litigation, and filed applications before the Second Circuit Court of Appeals in the Appeal, opposing its voluntary dismissal. Mr. Dugan claims an interest in the Fund pursuant to an alleged oral agreement.

15. Defendant Stephen B. Murray, d/b/a The Murray Law Firm ("Murray"), is a natural person who resides in, and is licensed to practice law in, Louisiana. Mr. Murray is subject to the personal jurisdiction of this Court as he claims his interest in the Fund derivatively through James Dugan, with whom he claims to have a contract to share in Dugan's interest in the Fund. Mr. Murray also has entered his appearance in this Court with Mr. Dugan in other ongoing Rezulin-related litigation, continues to prosecute such claims in this Court, and filed applications before the Second Circuit Court of Appeals in the Appeal, opposing its voluntary dismissal.

16. Defendant Wallace Jordan Ratliff & Brandt, LLC ("Wallace Jordan") is a law firm organized as a limited liability company under the laws of the State of Alabama. Wallace Jordan's principal place of business is located in Birmingham, Alabama. Wallace Jordan claims an interest in the Fund as legal counsel to several of the non-litigating insurers whose settlements were responsible in part for the creation of the Fund and in consideration of its other services which contributed to its creation. Wallace Jordan has consented to the jurisdiction of this Court for purposes of this action. Wallace Jordan has no office in Louisiana, no lawyers admitted to practice in Louisiana and disclaims amenability to the personal jurisdiction of the courts of Louisiana. See Exhibit 14.

17. Defendant Elwood S. Simon and Associates, P.C. ("Elwood Simon") is a law firm organized as a professional corporation under the laws of Michigan, where it maintains its sole office. Elwood Simon is subject to the personal jurisdiction of this Court, as it appeared in the Rezulin Litigation and has consented to the jurisdiction of this Court for the purposes of this action. Elwood Simon has no office in Louisiana, no lawyers admitted to practice in Louisiana and disclaims amenability to the personal jurisdiction of the courts of Louisiana. Elwood Simon claims an interest in the Fund in consideration of its services which contributed to its creation, which consist of 409 lawyer hours and $2,278.72 of expenses dedicated to the Rezulin Litigation. See Exhibit 15.

18. Defendant Kershaw, Cutter & Ratneroff, LLP ("Kershaw Cutter") is a law firm organized as a limited liability partnership under the laws of California, where it maintains its sole office. Kershaw Cutter is subject to the personal jurisdiction of this Court as it appeared in the Rezulin Litigation and has consented to the jurisdiction of this Court for the purposes of this action. Kershaw Cutter has no office in Louisiana, no lawyers admitted to practice in Louisiana and disclaims amenability to the personal jurisdiction of the courts of Louisiana. Kershaw Cutter claims an interest in the Fund in consideration of its services which contributed to its creation, which consist of a substantial number of lawyer hours and $13,989.43 of expenses which it dedicated to the Rezulin Litigation. See Exhibit 16.

19. Defendant Berman DeValero Pease Tabacco Burt & Pucillo ("Berman DeValero") is a law firm organized as a partnership under the laws of Massachusetts. Berman DeValero is subject to the personal jurisdiction of this Court as it appeared in the Rezulin litigation and has consented to the jurisdiction of this Court for the purposes of this action. Berman DeValero has no office in Louisiana, no lawyers admitted to practice in Louisiana and disclaims amenability to the personal jurisdiction of the courts of Louisiana. Berman DeValero claims an interest in the Fund in consideration of its services which contributed to its creation, which consists of 247.3 lawyer hours and $6,661.35 of expenses dedicated to the Rezulin Litigation. See Exhibit 20.

20. Shipman & Goodwin, LLP ("Shipman & Goodwin") is a law firm organized as a limited liability partnership under the laws of Connecticut where it maintains its only offices. Shipman & Goodwin is subject to the personal jurisdiction of this Court as it appeared in this Court in the Rezulin litigation and has informed Plaintiff that it will consent to the jurisdiction of this Court for the purposes of this action. Shipman & Goodwin has no office in Louisiana, no lawyers admitted to practice in Louisiana and disclaims amenability to the personal jurisdiction of the courts of Louisiana. Shipman & Goodwin claims an interest in the Fund in consideration of its services which contributed to its creation, which consists of 736 lawyer and paralegal hours, and $10,369 of expenses dedicated to the Rezulin Litigation.

II. JURISDICTION AND VENUE

21. This Court has jurisdiction over the subject matter of this action pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1335 because (a) the Fund constitutes property, an amount of money, or an obligation to pay money in excess of $500, (b) two or more adverse claimants of diverse citizenship as defined by 28 U.S.C. § 1332, claim to be entitled to the Fund; and (c) the Fund has been deposited into the registry of this Court.

22. Venue is appropriate in this Court under 28 U.S.C. § 1397 as the Fund is situated in this District, and Plaintiff Lowey Dannenberg, the principal claimant to the Fund, resides in this District. This District is the sole venue where a court has personal jurisdiction over all parties and has jurisdiction over the Fund.

III. FACTS

23. From 2001 until 2007, Plaintiff served as counsel of record for litigating insurers, Eastern States Health and Welfare Fund (Eastern States) and Louisiana Health Services Indemnity Company, d/b/a BlueCross BlueShield of Louisiana (BCBSLA), in the Rezulin Litigation before this Court and before the United States Court of Appeals for the Second Circuit.

24. In the Rezulin Litigation, BCBSLA and Eastern States sued Warner Lambert, seeking damages and restitution incident to their purchases of the prescription drug Rezulin.

25. Defendants (i) Murphy, (ii) Morain & Murphy, (iii) Rawlings and Associates, (iv) Elwood Simon, (v) Kershaw Cutter, (vi) Berman DeValerio, and (vii) Shipman & Goodwin all appeared, and rendered valuable services at various times, in the Rezulin Litigation, for which they assert claims to recover attorneys fees and expenses from the Fund.

26. Plaintiff Lowey Dannenberg and Defendants Rawlings & Associates and Wallace Jordan separately represented various (and among them represented all) of the 50 non-litigating health insurers which were not parties to the Rezulin Litigation, but which were parties to the Settlement from which the Fund was created, for which they assert claims to recover attorneys fees and expenses from the Fund.

27. Defendants Dugan and Murray appeared in the Rezulin Litigation. Dugan and Murray are also counsel of record in a putative class action case before this Court which mimics the settled Rezulin Litigation. Millner v. Warner-Lambert LLC, Case No. 05-CV-6673 (S.D.N.Y.) (the "Millner Rezulin Action"). However, rather than contributing to the creation of the Fund, they tried to prevent the Settlement from occurring. See Exhibit 9.

28. In 2007, while the Appeal was pending, Pfizer offered to litigating and non-litigating health insurers a five-year agreement to resolve various types of pending and potential future claims which health insurers have historically asserted against prescription drug manufacturers, including (but not limited to) the claims asserted in the Rezulin Litigation. Pfizer's principal prerequisites to such an agreement were the enrollment in the Settlement of insurers covering a major share of privately-insured Americans and dismissal of the Appeal.

29. Pfizer never offered to settle with only the two litigating insurers, since their collective market share was very small.

30. The Settlement was memorialized in the July 12, 2007 Settlement Agreement, whose principal terms provided that, if a sufficient quantum of insurers signed the Settlement Agreement, Pfizer would pay into a settlement fund to be maintained by Plaintiff, an aggregate amount not to exceed $22 million, computed by (a) multiplying the number of covered lives represented by all participating insurers, times an agreed-upon amount per life of $0.11333, plus (b) $5,000,000. In consideration for such payments, the settling health insurers would enter into 5-year agreements not to sue Pfizer with respect to specified claims covering any type of product, they would agree to a fixed payment mechanism for settling certain other types of claims which might arise, they would release claims related to Rezulin, and the 2 litigating insurers would dismiss the Appeal.

31. Thereafter, before the Settlement was funded by Pfizer, all settling insurers agreed to a plan of distribution if the Settlement occurred, whereby (a) the non-litigating insurers would receive $0.11333 per covered life; (b) the 2 litigating insurers would receive $275,000 each; and (c) $4,450,000 would be allocated to pay legal fees and expenses.

32. By September 2007, a number of insurers satisfactory to Pfizer executed the Settlement Agreement, and agreed to proceed with the Settlement. See Exhibit 8. In connection therewith, on September 14, 2007, and October 5, 2007 Pfizer made payments totaling $16,047,438.55 into Citibank Account No. 009977643705 opened in this District by Plaintiff, as attorneys for the Fund. See Exhibit 3. In consideration, the Appeal was dismissed by stipulation of all parties.

33. After learning that dismissal of the Appeal was a condition precedent to the Settlement, in August 2007 and September 2007, Defendants Dugan and Murray tried to block dismissal of the Appeal in order to prevent the Settlement from occurring, which, if successful, would have prevented the creation of the Fund, the same Fund from which they are now seeking fees. They did this by sending an August 27, 2007 letter to the United States Court of Appeals for the Second Circuit opposing dismissal of the then-pending Appeal, and filing a September 18, 2007 application with the United States Court of Appeals for the Second Circuit, purportedly on behalf of their plaintiff in the Millner Rezulin Action, seeking to intervene in the Appeal and seeking to prevent the two litigating insurers' voluntary dismissal of the Appeal from this Court's judgment dismissing their claims in the Rezulin Litigation. See Exhibit 9.

34. Dugan and Murray's applications to block dismissal of the Appeal were rejected by the Second Circuit and the Appeal was dismissed. See Exhibit 10.

35. Thus, the Fund, from which Defendants Dugan and Murray now seek fees, came into being despite, not because of, the actions of Defendants Dugan and Murray.

36. Lowey Dannenberg and all Defendants other than Dugan and Murray are entitled to compensation from the Fund for their respective efforts which led to its creation.

IV. DUGAN AND MURRAY'S ASSERTION OF CLAIMS TO THE FUND

37. Before the Settlement between Pfizer and the 52 settling insurers could be consummated, Dugan and Murray learned from a joint filing by the parties to the appeal that a potential settlement was being negotiated. On July 17, 2007, Dugan and Murray wrote to counsel for Pfizer, to Defendant Mark Fischer, and to Plaintiff, asserting an interest in any attorneys fees generated as a result of the Settlement, and requesting that such fees be deposited in the registry of this Court under the supervision of Judge Kaplan. See Exhibit 6.

38. In response, Defendant Fischer informed Dugan that if and when a settlement occurred, he and Murray would be entitled to fees from any settlement that were commensurate with their relative contribution to the prosecution and settlement of the Rezulin Litigation.

39. On July 18, 2007, Defendant Dugan wrote to Defendant Mark Fischer claiming a 1/3 interest in legal fees generated by the Settlement, specifically referencing the fees to be generated from the Settlement and calculating his alleged fee interest pursuant to the terms of the Settlement Agreement as $1.5 million. See Exhibit 21 and Exhibit A thereto.

40. That same day, July 18, 2007, almost two months before the Settlement became binding and the Fund came into existence, Defendants Dugan and Murray sued Murphy, Lowey Dannenberg, Fischer, Rawlings, and Rawlings & Associates in the Civil District Court of the Parish of Orleans in New Orleans, Louisiana claiming breach of contract, and breach of fiduciary duty by virtue of their not paying to Dugan and Murray legal fees generated from the Settlement of the Rezulin litigation (the "Louisiana Action"). See Exhibit 5. The Louisiana Action was filed notwithstanding that there was not yet a Settlement nor any legal fees to distribute.

41. None of Defendants Elwood Simon, Kershaw Cutter, Wallace Jordan, Berman DeValerio, and Shipman & Goodwin, each of which has an interest in the Fund, was named or joined as a party to the Louisiana Action.

42. On August 10, 2007, defendants removed the Louisiana Action to the United States District Court for the Eastern District of Louisiana, claiming diversity on the grounds of fraudulent joinder of Murphy. On August 22, 2007, Defendants Dugan and Murray filed a motion to remand the Louisiana Action back to state court. All proceedings in the Louisiana Action were stayed by the Eastern District of Louisiana by Order entered September 12, 2007. See Exhibit 11.

43. Thereafter, on or about September 14, 2007, the Fund first came into existence when Pfizer made the first of two Settlement payments.

44. On December 12, 2007, the Judicial Panel on Multi-District Litigation transferred the Louisiana Action to the Honorable Lewis A. Kaplan of this Court.

45. On January 16, 2008, this Court issued an order remanding the Louisiana Action to the Civil District Court of the Parish of Orleans in New Orleans, Louisiana on grounds it lacked subject matter jurisdiction.

46. On January 17, 2008, Plaintiff initiated this action, and the Honorable Kenneth M.

Karas of this Court issued a temporary restraining order enjoining prosecution of the Louisiana Action. See Exhibit 12.

47. Absent preliminary and permanent injunctive relief by this Court, Dugan and Murray will continue prosecution of the Louisiana Action and/or other competing actions, the effect of which would be to subject Plaintiff, Rawlings, Fischer, Rawlings & Associates, Murphy, and other Defendants to multiple litigation and liability concerning the exact same object, i.e. entitlement to a portion of the Fund.

48. Plaintiff and every Defendant other than Dugan and Murray are claimants in the Fund and have asserted claims to a portion thereof.

49. Defendants Dugan and Murray are claimants to the Fund, which claim Plaintiff disputes due to their actions which tried to prevent the occurrence of the Settlement from which the Fund was created.

50. This Court is the only tribunal with personal jurisdiction over all claimants to the Fund and in rem jurisdiction over the Fund itself, and is the only Court with power to adjudicate the claims of all parties to the Fund.

51. Lowey Dannenberg cannot safely determine all of the various claims to the Fund by the Defendants and itself without great hazard and multiple liability, making this interpleader action necessary.

52. Under the provisions of 28 U.S.C. § 1335, Lowey Dannenberg is entitled to join all persons asserting claims against the Fund in this single proceeding so that Lowey Dannenberg and other Defendants may avoid duplicative litigation and avoid multiple or inconsistent judgments on the conflicting and adverse claims of Defendants to recover fees and expenses from the Fund.

V. PRAYER FOR RELIEF

WHEREFORE, Lowey Dannenberg prays for judgment that:

1. Defendants be required to interplead and assert in this proceeding and settle between themselves and Plaintiff any and all claims which each or any of them have to the Fund;
2. That Lowey Dannenberg be discharged from all liability relating to such benefits except to pay from the Fund, if returned to it by the Court, amounts owed to the party or parties whom the Court shall judge entitled to the Fund;
3. Pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 2361, Dugan and Murray be permanently restrained from instituting, prosecuting, or continuing to prosecute any competing action in any other state or United States court, including Dugan, et al. v. Murphy, et al., (filed July 18, 2007), affecting the Fund or concerning their entitlement to any monies from the Settlement;
4. Defendants, and each of them, be permanently restrained from commencing or continuing to prosecute any competing action for the recovery of the Fund or any part thereof, or any claims related to their entitlement to money from the Settlement, as against Lowey Dannenberg or the other parties named herein;
5. Lowey Dannenberg recover out of the Fund its costs and attorneys' fees incurred in this action and all actions connected to the Fund; and
6. Awarding such other relief as the Court may deem just and equitable.

Respectfully submitted this 28th day of January, 2008.

DEPUTY CLERK

PETITION FOR DAMAGES, QUANTUM MERUIT, CONCURSUS
AND INJUNCTIVE RELIEF

NOW INTO COURT, through undersigned counsel, come petitioners James R. Dugan, II, and Stephen B. Murray d/b/a The Murray Law Firm, who file this petition for damages, quantum meruit, concursus and injunctive relief relating to legal fees to be allocated in the matter of Louisiana Health v. Warner Lambert Co., et al., USDC-EDLA, 2:09-cv-2566, MDL Panel, M21-85, MDL 1348 ("Rezulin Litigation"). Petitioners further aver as follows:

PARTIES

1. Marie petitioners in this matter are:
 - a. James R. Dugan, II, a natural person domiciled in Orleans Parish, Louisiana ("Dugan"); and,
 - b. Stephen B. Murray d/b/a The Murray Law Firm, a natural person domiciled in Orleans Parish, Louisiana ("The Murray Law Firm").
2. Marie defendants in this matter are:
 - a. Greg Murphy ("Murphy"), a natural person domiciled in East Baton Rouge Parish, Louisiana, but doing business in Orleans Parish, Louisiana;
 - b. George Rawlings ("Rawlings"), a natural person domiciled in Louisville, Kentucky, but doing business in Orleans Parish, Louisiana;

- c. Mark Fischer ("Fischer"), a natural person domiciled in Louisville, Kentucky, but doing business in Orleans Parish, Louisiana;
- d. Rawlings & Associates, PLLC ("Rawlings & Associates"), a Kentucky corporation domiciled in Louisville, Kentucky, but doing business in Orleans Parish, Louisiana; and
- e. Lowey, Dannenberg, Beinorad and Selinger, P.C. ("Lowey") a law firm domiciled in White Plains, New York, but doing business in Orleans Parish, Louisiana.

3. Venue is proper in Orleans Parish because:
 - a. many of the events giving rise to this petition occurred in Orleans Parish;
 - b. much of the work and/or services called for the parties' contract was performed in Orleans Parish; and,
 - c. much of the work of the joint venture giving rise to this petition was performed in Orleans Parish.

FACTS

4. From 1994 to 2006, Dugan was a lawyer associated with the law firm of Gauthier, Downing, LaBarre, Beiser and Dean ("Gauthier, Downing Firm"). He worked directly with the late Wendell H. Gauthier.

5. Upon leaving the Gauthier, Downing Firm, Dugan was assigned all right, interest and responsibility for the Rezulin Litigation. Upon joining The Murray Firm, Dugan assigned all right, interest and responsibility for the Rezulin Litigation to The Murray Firm.

6. On August 28, 2000, Wendell Gauthier, James Dugan, and Mark Fischer of Rawlings & Associates entered into a joint venture agreement to prosecute claims on behalf of Blue Cross Blue Shield of Louisiana, and numerous other clients, against Warner-Lambert (subsequently bought by Pfizer in 2000) ("Pfizer") relating to the drug Rezulin ("Rezulin Litigation"). The Rezulin Litigation joint venture agreement expressly provided for a 50/50 division of all attorney fees generated in the litigation between Gauthier-Dugan and Rawlings & Associates.

7. Wendell Gauthier and James Dugan had entered into a similar joint venture agreement with Rawlings & Associates in the Phen-Fen Litigation on July 14, 1999. The Phen-Fen litigation was successfully handled by the Gauthier & Rawlings firms, and the firms divided fees 50/50 in accordance with their joint venture agreement.

8. The original Blue Cross of Louisiana Rezulin case was filed in Federal Court in New Orleans on August 29, 2000. The Blue Cross Blue Shield of Louisiana case was then transferred by way of the Multidistrict Litigation Panel to the Southern District of New York and assigned to the Honorable Judge Kaplan. A similar Rezulin case was filed by Richard Cohen and the Lowey firm in the Southern District of New York on behalf of the Eastern States Health and Welfare Fund. The two cases were subsequently consolidated for pre-trial proceedings.

9. The lawyers and law firms on the consolidated cases, including the defendants, agreed to work together in a joint venture on the Rezulin litigation, with the Gauthier firm handling discovery, the Lowey firm handling law, pleadings, and motions and Rawlings & Associates handling client relations and inventory. The parties worked jointly on a consolidated complaint. The defendant, Pfizer, filed a Motion to Dismiss the consolidated complaint. The parties worked on a Opposition to the Motion to Dismiss. Judge Kaplan granted the Defendant's Motion to Dismiss. The parties jointly worked on drafts for the appeal of the Motion to Dismiss to the United States Court of Appeals for the 2nd Circuit.

10. Wendell H. Gauthier died December 11, 2001.

11. Appeals were filed in the summer of 2002. Despite filing the original Blue Cross Blue Shield Case and diligently working on the case until this point, Dugan was excluded from the briefing at the 2nd Circuit by Rawlings & Associates & the Lowey firm. Upon learning of this, Dugan met with Mark Fischer at his office in Louisville, Kentucky to discuss the matter. Fischer's excuse for excluding Dugan from the 2nd Circuit briefing was that he believed that "Dugan no longer wished to work on the case." Dugan reaffirmed to Fischer his continued interest in handling the Rezulin litigation. The two then agreed to hire Kea Starr to do the appellate work at the 2nd Circuit in a manner similar to what they had done in Phen-Fen.

12. The 2nd Circuit reversed Judge Kaplan and remanded the case to the trial court.

13. Corporate depositions of Blue Cross Blue Shield of Louisiana were taken. Greg Murphy and Peter St. Phillip of the Lowey firm defended the Blue Cross depositions in Baton Rouge, Louisiana.

14. Thereafter, Pfizer filed Motions for Summary Judgment. Plaintiffs filed Oppositions to the Motions for Summary Judgment. Lowey and Rawlings excluded Gauthier and Dugan from the Opposition to Motion for Summary Judgment, despite repeated requests by Dugan to be involved in the briefing. Instead, Lowey and Rawlings & Associates substituted Greg Murphy for Dugan, negligently or intentionally to interfere with Dugan's contact with his client.

15. Oral Argument was heard on the Motion for Summary Judgment in Judge Kaplan's Court. Peter St. Philip of the Lowey Firm handled the argument and James Dugan was in attendance. Dugan filed a Notice of Supplemental Authority in support of the Motion for Summary Judgment, citing Local 68 v. Merck, a favorable decision denying Motion for Summary Judgment in the Vioxx litigation. Judge Kaplan nonetheless granted defendant's Motion for Summary Judgment.

16. The Lowey Firm and Rawlings & Associates filed appeals at the United States Court of Appeal for the 2nd Circuit, again excluding Dugan from the briefing despite his repeated requests to be included. In December of 2006, Oral Argument was heard at the United States Court of Appeal for the 2nd Circuit on the Motion for Summary Judgment Appeals.

17. In July 2007, Pfizer and the clients represented by the petitioners reached a tentative settlement of the Rezulin Litigation. This settlement will result in the division of a substantial legal fee among the lawyers participating in the Rezulin Litigation, including the parties to this lawsuit. The defendants, however, have denied that the petitioners have any interest in recovering the legal fees in question—despite the existence of a joint venture.

COUNT I: BREACH OF CONVENTIONAL OBLIGATION

18. The petitioners and the defendants entered into a conventional obligation (contract) under which they agreed to work together on the Rezulin Litigation and to divide fees among themselves.

19. The petitioners worked competently and diligently on the Rezulin Litigation from the time of the parties' agreement through the present. In so doing, the petitioners have satisfied all of their conventional obligations to the defendants.

20. The defendants, however, have breached their conventional obligation to the petitioners by failing to permit the petitioners to share in the fees generated by the Rezulin Litigation.

21. The petitioners have suffered harm as a result of the defendants' acts or omissions.

COUNT II: BREACH OF JOINT VENTURE

22. The petitioners and the defendants entered into a joint venture agreement under which they agreed to work together jointly on the Rezulin Litigation. Through this agreement, they agreed to share the labor and financial risks associated with the venture. They also agreed to share any financial rewards that might result from their joint work through the recovery of legal fees.

23. The petitioners worked competently and diligently on the Rezulin Litigation from the time of the formation of the parties' joint venture through the present. Furthermore, the petitioners assumed significant out-of-pocket expenses, incurred lost opportunity costs, and bore other risks in undertaking this joint venture work.

24. The petitioners have satisfied all of their obligations to the joint venture and to their co-venturers.

25. The defendants, however, have breached their obligations under the joint venture agreement by failing to permit the petitioners to share in the financial rewards of the venture, more particularly, by failing to permit the petitioners to share in the fees generated by the Rezulin Litigation.

26. The petitioners have suffered harm as a result of the defendants' acts or omissions.

COUNT III: BREACH OF FIDUCIARY DUTIES

27. The petitioners and the defendants owed each other fiduciary duties, including duties of loyalty and care, in connection with their joint-venture work on the Rezulin Litigation.

28. In addition, the petitioners and the defendants owed the Rezulin Litigation joint venture fiduciary duties, including duties of loyalty and care, in connection with their joint-venture work.

29. The petitioners satisfied all of their fiduciary duties to the joint venture and to their co-venturers through working competently diligently on the Rezulin Litigation from the time of the formation of the parties' joint venture through the present.

30. The defendants, however, have breached their fiduciary obligations to the joint venture and to the petitioners by intentionally self-dealing and by denying the petitioners an opportunity to share in the financial rewards of the Rezulin Litigation, solely in an effort to unjustly enrich themselves at the expense of the petitioners.

COUNT IV: VIOLATION OF LOUISIANA UNFAIR TRADE PRACTICES ACT

31. The acts and omissions described above have caused the petitioners to suffer ascertainable loss of money or moveable property, corporeal or incorporeal; namely, their substantial interest in the legal fee to be distributed in the Rezulin Litigation.

32. The ascertainable loss of money or moveable property suffered by the petitioners was caused by the use or employment by another person, namely the defendants, of an unfair or deceptive method, act or practice, namely the self-serving exclusion and/or attempted exclusion of petitioners from participation in (a) critical stages of the Rezulin Litigation to the potential detriment of various jointly represented clients, and (b) the fee allocation in the Rezulin Litigation. These self-serving actions were predatorily undertaken by the defendants in an effort to take advantage of the death of Wendell Gauthier to the disadvantage of the petitioners.

33. The acts and omissions by the defendants described above constitute "[u]nfair methods of competition and unfair or deceptive acts or practices in the conduct of any trade or commerce."

COUNT V: DELICT

34. The negligent and/or intentional acts and omissions of the defendants breached a duty of care owed to the petitioners.

35. These negligent and/or intentional acts in breach of duty caused harm to the petitioners.

36. Pursuant to Louisiana Civil Code articles 2315 and 2317, among others, the defendants are obligated to repair the harm caused by their negligent or intentional acts and/or omissions.

COUNT VI: CONCURSUS

37. Two or more persons, namely all the parties to this action, have competing or conflicting claims to money, namely the substantial legal fees to be allocated in the Rezulin Litigation.

38. Pursuant to Louisiana Code of Civil Procedure articles 4651-4662, all of the parties to this action should be required to assert their respective claims contradictorily against all other parties to the proceeding.

39. Pursuant to Louisiana Code of Civil Procedure article 4660, the defendants should be enjoined and/or prohibited from instituting or prosecuting in any court of this state or of the United States any other action or proceeding on the claim involved in the concursus proceeding.

COUNT VII: QUANTUM MERUIT

40. In the alternative, the defendants, through the acts and omissions described above, have been unjustly enriched by the petitioners' work in the Rezulin Litigation. More particularly, the legal work performed by the petitioners in the Rezulin Litigation has caused or will cause the defendants to receive substantial legal fees as a result of the risks and work undertaken by the petitioners.

41. To allow the defendants to retain the uncompensated fruits of the petitioners' efforts would be unjust because doing so would unjustly enrich the defendants. To avoid permitting the defendants to be unjustly enriched, the court should order them to disgorge to the plaintiffs that portion of the Rezulin Litigation fee attributable to the efforts, work and risk undertaken by the petitioners.

42. To allow the defendants to retain the uncompensated fruits of the petitioners' Rezulin Litigation efforts would be unjust because doing so would cause the petitioners to suffer financial damages. To compensate the petitioners for the work and risk they undertook in connection with the Rezulin Litigation, the court should order the defendants to pay to the petitioners that portion of the Rezulin Litigation fee attributable to the efforts, work and risk undertaken by the petitioners.

PRAYER FOR RELIEF

43. WHEREFORE, plaintiffs respectfully request that judgment be granted in their favor and against the defendants in the following particulars:

- a. requiring all parties to assert their respective claims to the fees to be allocated in the Rezulin Litigation contradictorily against all other parties to the proceeding, pursuant to Louisiana Code of Civil Procedure articles 4651-4662;
- b. enjoining the defendants, pursuant to Louisiana Code of Civil Procedure article 4660, from instituting or prosecuting in any court of this state or of the United States any other action or proceeding on claim to legal fees in the Rezulin Litigation involved in this concursus proceeding;
- c. awarding damages to the petitioners for harm suffered by them as a result of the defendants' breach of contract, breach of fiduciary duties, violation of the Louisiana Unfair Trade Practices Act and breach of duties under Louisiana Civil Code articles 2315 and 2317;

- c. in the alternative, awarding the petitioners quantum meruit in the amount of that portion of the Rezulin Litigation fee received by the defendants that is attributable to the efforts, work and risk undertaken by the petitioners;
- d. awarding to the petitioners all attorneys' fees and costs associated with this action; and,
- e. awarding to the petitioners such other relief allowed by law and equity.

Dear Steven:

I was disturbed to learn today that an actual settlement agreement had been signed off on in the above referenced case. I would respectfully request that you send me a copy of the agreement. After review I will ascertain whether I have an objection to the terms of the agreement and/or in particular the attorney's fees portion. If I do object to the attorney's fee portion I would respectfully request that all funds be deposited in the registry of the court under the supervision of Judge Kaplan as until a time this dispute can be resolved. I will contact you by the close of business tomorrow July 18, 2007 as to my final position after a review of the agreement.

If you have any questions or comments in reference to the above please do not hesitate to call.

With kindest regards I remain,

Very truly yours,

Plaintiffs,

GREG MURPHY, GEORGE RAWLINGS, MARK FISCHER, RAWLINGS AND ASSOCIATES, PLLC, and LOWEY

PC,

Defendants.

Case No. 07-4073

HONORABLE ELDON E. FALLON

ANSWER

Defendants Greg Murphy, George Rawlings, Mark Fischer, Rawlings and Associates, PLLC, and Lowey Dannenberg Bemporad & Selinger, P.C., by and through their undersigned counsel, hereby answer Plaintiffs' Petition as follows:

AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSES

By alleging the matters set forth below, Defendants do not admit that they have the burden of proof and/or the burden of persuasion with respect to any of these defenses.

First Affirmative Defense

1. The Petition fails to state a claim upon which relief can be granted.

Second Affirmative Defense

2. Plaintiffs are precluded from obtaining relief against Defendants because Plaintiffs have suffered no damages.

Third Affirmative Defense

3. Plaintiffs' claims are barred, in whole or in part, by the applicable statutes of limitation, prescription or repose.

Fourth Affirmative Defense

4. Plaintiffs' claims are barred, in whole or in part, by the doctrines of laches, waiver, unclean hands and/or estoppel.

Fifth Affirmative Defense

5. Plaintiffs have not pleaded facts with the specificity and/or particularity required by applicable law.

Sixth Affirmative Defense

6. There is no personal jurisdiction over the Defendants, except Defendant Murphy.

Seventh Affirmative Defense

7. Venue is improper in this District.

Eighth Affirmative Defense

8. The Court should dismiss the case on grounds of forum non conveniens.

Ninth Affirmative Defense

9. The Court lacks jurisdiction over Defendants due to insufficiency of service of process.

Tenth Affirmative Defense

10. Plaintiffs cannot recover on any of their claims because they failed to comply with the provisions of La. R.S. 37:218.

Eleventh Affirmative Defense

11. Plaintiffs cannot recover on any of their claims because they failed to give Defendants notice of their alleged interests in accordance with Ferguson v. West Jefferson Levee Dist. Bd. of Comm'rs, 685 So.2d 273 (La. Ct. App. 5th Cir. 1996).

Twelfth Affirmative Defense

12. Plaintiffs cannot recover on their claims for breach of conventional obligation because the parties did not enter into a conventional obligation.

Thirteenth Affirmative Defense

13. Plaintiffs cannot recover on their claims for breach of joint venture because the parties did not enter into a joint venture.

Fourteenth Affirmative Defense

14. Plaintiffs cannot recover on their claims based on the applicable statute of frauds.

Fifteenth Affirmative Defense

15. Plaintiffs failed to mitigate their damages, if any.

Sixteenth Affirmative Defense

16. Plaintiffs cannot recover on their claim of quantum meruit because nothing has been taken from Plaintiffs which, in equity, should be restored and because Defendants did not receive any benefit from Plaintiffs.

Seventeenth Affirmative Defense

17. Plaintiffs cannot recover on their claim of breach of fiduciary duty because at no time did any of the Defendants owe Plaintiffs a fiduciary duty.

Eighteenth Affirmative Defense

18. Plaintiffs cannot recover on their claim of breach of fiduciary duty because even if Defendants and Plaintiffs owed each other fiduciary duties, Plaintiffs failed to comply with their fiduciary duties.

Nineteenth Affirmative Defense

19. Plaintiffs cannot recover on their claim of a violation of the Louisiana Unfair Trade Practices Act because Plaintiffs have not committed an unfair or deceptive method, act or practice.

Twentieth Affirmative Defense

20. Plaintiffs cannot recover on their claim of Delict because at no time did Defendants either owe a duty of care to the Plaintiffs or act improperly toward Plaintiffs.

Twenty-First Affirmative Defense

21. Plaintiffs cannot recover on their claim of Delict because Defendants acts did not cause any harm to Plaintiffs, either in tort or contract.

Twenty-Second Affirmative Defense

22. Plaintiffs cannot recover on their claim of Concursus because Plaintiffs have no claim to the legal fees to be allocated from the matters referenced in their Petition.

Twenty-Third Affirmative Defense

23. Plaintiffs have forfeited their right to attorneys' fees and costs as a result of their conflicts of interest.

Twenty-Fourth Affirmative Defense

24. Plaintiffs cannot recover on their claims for breach of a conventional obligation because Plaintiffs were terminated as counsel by the client for cause.

Twenty-Fifth Affirmative Defense

25. This Court has no subject matter jurisdiction over this action because Plaintiffs have fraudulently joined Defendant Murphy.

Twenty-Sixth Affirmative Defense

26. Defendants invoke each and every statutory and common law defense available to them under each state law applicable to any claim alleged in the Petition.

Twenty-Seventh Affirmative Defense

27. Defendants invoke each and every constitutional defense available to it under each federal or state Constitution (or similar charter), including, but not limited to, provisions relating to due process and access to the courts applicable to any claim alleged in the Petition.

Twenty-Eighth Affirmative Defense

28. Defendants hereby give notice that they intend to rely upon such other defenses as may become available or apparent during the course of discovery and thus reserve the right to amend this Answer to assert such defenses.

Liab. Litig.*, MDL No. 1348. Re: Louisiana Health Services Indemnity Company d/b/a Blue Cross/Blue Shield of Louisiana v. Warner-Lambert Company
(C.A. No. 05-6249-CV)

Honorable Members of the Court:

I represent third-party payers who are members of the putative plaintiff class in the matter styled Louisiana Health Services Indemnity Company d/b/a Blue Cross/Blue Shield of Louisiana v. Warner-Lambert Company (E.D. La. 2:00-2566) (S.D.N.Y., MDL 1348, No. 1:00-8064) ("BCBSLA action") in which an appeal is currently pending before this Honorable Court (C.A. No. 05-6249-CV). On July 27, 2007, Peter D. St. Phillip and David Klingsberg, counsel in the BCBSLA case wrote to this Court advising that a settlement had been reached and that, presumably, the appeal will be withdrawn and the BCBSLA action dismissed.¹

¹ The letter from Messrs. St. Phillip and Klingsberg to this Honorable Court is identified on the PACER docket history, but as of the writing of this letter, undersigned counsel have been unable to view the letter itself, which is not available for download from PACER.

Honorable Members of the Court

27 August 2007

It is my understanding that the settlement referenced in the July 27, 2007 letter to this Court is not a class action settlement, but is rather a settlement with the named plaintiffs and certain individual third party payers represented by counsel for the named plaintiffs. Jurisprudence in this Circuit holds that when putative class representatives seek to dismiss a putative class action prior to certification, the Court must conduct an inquiry into the propriety of compromising the putative class action. Specifically, prior to allowing a putative class representative to dismiss a putative class action in order to compromise their individual claims only, the court must inquire into: 1) whether the settling named plaintiff has used the compromise of the class action to enhance the value of his/her own claim without attaining benefit for the class; and 2) whether the claims of putative class members will be prejudiced by the dismissal of the putative class action. See e.g. Jaen v. New York Telephone Co., 81 F.R.D. 696 (S.D.N.Y. 1979). While undersigned counsel lack sufficient information at this time to determine whether the former concern is present, it is apparent that the latter certainly is the case.

Subsequent to filing of the Blue Cross Blue Shield of Louisiana case, undersigned counsel filed a similar class action on behalf of consumers and third-party payer Allied Services Welfare Fund ("Allied Services"), and all persons similarly situated (Mary Millner, Anita Kivell, and Allied Services Division Welfare Fund v. Warner-Lambert, I.I.C. and Pfizer, Inc., MDL 1348, No. 05-6673). By agreement, this class action was stayed pending resolution of the appeal of the grant of summary judgment in the BCBSLA action. The logic behind staying the later filed class action was compelling. First, if the BCBSLA plaintiffs were successful in their appeal, presumably their action would be remanded to district court for further proceedings, including consideration of class certification. If the BCBSLA action were certified, that class would subsume the class alleged in the later filed Allied Services action. Second, even assuming that the BCBSLA plaintiffs elected not to pursue class certification, proceedings in the later filed action would be informed by this Court's holdings with respect to the BCBSLA appeal.

Now that it appears that a decision from this Court which would inform all future actions is imminent, the named plaintiffs to this appeal are seeking to dismiss their appeal, in effect setting back all proceedings on behalf of absent putative class members by years. Plaintiffs in the still-pending, subsequently filed class action will have to conduct all new discovery, present an entirely new record, be heard on motions to dismiss and summary judgment, and presumably have to seek an appeal of that judgment, just in order to put the putative class action in the posture that it is in today. The delay to be occasioned by dismissal of the pending appeal, to say nothing of the waste of judicial resources, will act as definite detriment to the absent class members who desire to assert their claims.

In light of the prejudice to the putative class members, I am writing to advise this Court that plaintiffs in the Allied Services class action, who are putative members of the class asserted in the compromised BCBSLA action, wish to be heard on the matter before any order withdrawing the BCBSLA appeal or dismissing the BCBSLA action is entered. Accordingly, I would request that any motion to withdraw the appeal be set for adversary hearing, and counsel for plaintiffs in the Allied Services matter be given notice of said hearing and an opportunity to file a brief in opposition to any such motion.

Thank you for your attention to this matter.

Very truly yours,

James R. Dugan, II

OPPOSITION TO VOLUNTARY DISMISSAL
OF PUTATIVE CLASS ACTION APPEAL

MAY IT PLEASE THE COURT:

On September 4, 2007, defendant and named plaintiffs/putative class representatives entered a stipulation of voluntary dismissal of appeal pursuant to Federal Rule of Appellate Procedure 42(b). Undersigned counsel, on behalf of plaintiffs in the matter of Mary Millner, Anita Kivell, and Allied Services Division Welfare Fund v. Warner-Lambert, L.L.C. and Pfizer, Inc., MDL 1348, No. 05-6673 ("Allied Services Plaintiffs"), hereby oppose an entry of an Order of Dismissal pursuant to the stipulation. The Allied Services Plaintiffs are members of the putative class on behalf of whom named plaintiffs voluntary undertook representation and to whom named plaintiffs owe a fiduciary obligation. The Allied Services Plaintiffs, and all other members of the putative class asserted in the above-captioned action will be severely prejudiced by dismissal of this appeal. As a practical matter, the only way to avoid the prejudice to the putative class which would be occasioned by dismissal of the instant appeal is for this Court to decline to enter the dismissal, and to entertain (either under this Court's own auspices, or by remand to the trial court) the question of whether a dismissal of this putative class action at this critical juncture is proper.

In a September 7, 2007 letter to this Court, counsel for named plaintiffs and defendant represented to this Court that no review of the propriety of the dismissal and settlement is warranted, because the 2003 revisions to Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 23(e)(1) provide that court approval of a class action compromise and dismissal is required only with respect to certified classes. While the 2003 revisions to Rule 23(e)(1) clarified that court approval of a settlement is required only with respect to certified classes, nothing in those revisions relieved putative class representatives of their long-recognized fiduciary duty to absent putative class members, or the courts of their duty to ensure that the putative class representatives fulfill that fiduciary duty.

There is nothing in the 2003 revision to suggest that a court cannot voluntarily exercise its discretion to ensure that a proposed compromise of a class action has not been an abuse of the fiduciary duty of the putative class representatives, or to conduct an inquiry into whether the proposed dismissal acts to the prejudice of absent class members. Rather, the 2003 revisions simply clarify whether a court must jump through all of the procedural hurdles imposed for compromise of a certified class, which would be binding on absent class members.

Had Congress intended to relieve putative class representatives of their fiduciary duty to absent class members, then it most certainly would have made that intent clear. Instead, the 2003 revisions are silent as to compromise of uncertified putative class actions.¹ It has long been recognized that both putative class counsel and courts overseeing putative class actions owe a fiduciary duty to absent class members to ensure that the actions of the self-appointed putative class representatives do not prejudice absent class members. Greenfield v. Villager Industries, Inc., 483 F.2d 824, 832 (3d Cir. 1973); Culver v. City of Milwaukee, 277 F.3d 908, 914-15 (7th Cir. 2002). While court approval of a pre-certification settlement may no longer be required in every instance under the 2003 revisions, courts may still exercise discretion to protect the interests of absent class members by reviewing the propriety of such settlements. Indeed, courts have a fiduciary duty to do so.

More than a year after the passage of the 2003 revisions to Rule 23, a district court in the Southern District of New York recognized that the fiduciary duty to absent putative class members is still alive and well, and that courts have means within their discretion, short of formal approval under Rule 23(e)(1), to ensure that duty is fulfilled. The Southern District held:

[P]re-certification class counsel owe a fiduciary duty not to prejudice the interests that putative class members have in their class action litigation. These duties arise because class counsel acquires certain limited abilities to prejudice the substantive legal interests of putative class members even prior to class certification. In electing to put themselves forward as class counsel, they assume the duty of not harming those rights. After certification, class members have the opportunity to formally state whether they want to be represented by that counsel. Prior to certification, class members have no control over who may come forward as a named plaintiff and class counsel, and so their interests at that stage require protection. Requiring court approval (under Rule 23(e)) is one means of ensuring this protection. Imposing limited fiduciary duties upon pre-certification class counsel is yet another.

Schick v. Berg, 2004 WL 856298, at p. 6 (emphasis added).

While the 2003 revisions to rule 23(e) may state that court of approval is no longer required, courts continue to have both the power and the obligation to ensure that putative class representatives fulfill their fiduciary duty. The Schick court concluded:

Under this analysis, we may venture a few statements about the scope of the fiduciary duty owed by class counsel to putative class members prior to class certification. In short, the scope of those duties is limited to protecting the substantive legal rights of putative class members that form the basis of the class action suit from prejudice in an action against the class defendant resulting from the actions of class counsel. Where the actions of class counsel put those rights at risk, class counsel must at a minimum put absent class members on notice and provide them with an opportunity to object.

Id.

As undersigned counsel have previously noted to this Court, the compromise of this putative class action on the eve of the issuance of an opinion by this Court severely prejudices the interests of absent class members. By agreement, the Allied Services class action was stayed pending resolution of the appeal of the grant of summary judgment in the above-captioned action. The logic behind staying the later filed class action was compelling. First, if the plaintiffs in the instant action were successful in their appeal, presumably their action would be remanded to district court for further proceedings, including consideration of class certification. If the instant action were certified, then that class would subsume the class alleged in the later filed Allied Services action. Second, even assuming that the named plaintiffs in this action elected not to pursue class certification, proceedings in the later filed Allied Services action would be informed by this Court's holdings with respect to the this appeal.

Now that it appears that a decision from this Court which would inform all future actions is imminent, the named plaintiffs in this action are seeking to dismiss their appeal, in effect setting back all proceedings on behalf of absent putative class members by years. Plaintiffs in the still-pending, subsequently filed class action will have to conduct all new discovery, present an entirely new record, be heard on motions to dismiss and summary judgment, and presumably have to seek an appeal of that judgment, just in order to put the putative class action in the posture that it is in today. The delay to be occasioned by dismissal of the pending appeal, to say nothing of the waste of judicial resources, will act as definite detriment to the absent class members who desire to assert their claims.

Regardless of the 2003 revisions to Rule 23(e)(1), this Court and the trial court have both the authority and the duty to prevent putative class representatives from leveraging their roles as plaintiffs in a class action to the detriment of absent putative class members. Prior to allowing self-appointed class representatives to derail the actions of putative class representatives, this Court should either conduct its own inquiry into the propriety of such a course of action, or remand this matter to the trial court for expeditious consideration of whether putative class representatives should be permitted to dismiss this appeal.

 No. 08-cv-0461

Dear Judges Karas and Kaplan:

Defendants, James R. Dugan, II and Stephen B. Murray d/b/a The Murray Law Firm, in the above-captioned action respectfully request that Lowe Dannerberg Cohen, P.C. in re Rezulin Settlement Fund v. James R. Dugan, II et al., No. 08-cv-0461, ("Rezulin Settlement Fund action") be transferred to Judge Kaplan for consolidation with the In re Rezulin Products Liability Litigation, No. 00-Civ.-2843, MDL No. 1348 (the "Rezulin MDL") pursuant to Rule 15 of this Court's Rules for the Division of Business Among District Judges ("Rule 15"). Transfer would serve "the interests of justice and efficiency," as set forth in Rule 15(a), because this in rem action concerns the settlement proceeds of a Rezulin case, ("Louisiana BlueCross Rezulin action") and seeks to enjoin an in personam action concerning a joint-venture agreement, James R. Dugan, II and Stephen B. Murray, Sr. d/b/a Murray Law Firm v. Murphy, et al., 2007-6907, Civil District Court for the Parish of Orleans ("Dugan action"), both of which have been before Judge Kaplan.

Plaintiffs in the Rezulin Settlement Fund action admit that the funds at issue arise from a Rezulin MDL case, the Louisiana BlueCross Rezulin action which had been before Judge Kaplan. These same plaintiffs moved to transfer the Dugan action to the Rezulin MDL, and argued before the Joint Panel on Multidistrict Litigation (JPMDL), that the Dugan action was related and should be transferred to Judge Kaplan. (See attached Exhibit A, August 13, 2007 Letter from Lowey Dannenberg to JPMDL requesting transfer of that case to the Rezulin MDL: "Because the claims asserted herein relate to the claims pending in In re Rezulin Prods. Litig., MDL No. 1348, we respectfully request that the Panel transfer the within action pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1407 to the Honorable Lewis A. Kaplan of the United States District Court for the Southern District of New York). The JPMDL subsequently granted the transfer of the Dugan action to Judge Kaplan. (See attached Exhibit B, Transfer Order). On January 16, 2008, Judge Kaplan granted Plaintiffs Motion to Remand in the Dugan action. (See attached Exhibit C, Order). Only thereafter, did plaintiffs file the instant Rezulin Settlement Fund action, seeking a temporary restraining order against further prosecution of the Dugan action. (See attached Exhibit D, Complaint and Bill in the Nature of an Interpleader). Tellingly, the instant plaintiffs chose not even attempt to deposit the Rezulin Settlement Fund proceeds into the registry of the Court while that case was before Judge Kaplan, and they failed to indicate this case as a related case to the Rezulin MDL in violation of Local Rule 15.

The Dugan action is separate and distinct from the Rezulin Settlement Fund action; it is an in personam action for alleged breach of a joint venture agreement.

Judge Kaplan is knowledgeable about the underlying BlueCross Rezulin action, and the action the instant plaintiffs seek to enjoin, the Dugan action, having both been on his docket. The Rezulin Settlement Fund is an uncategorized portion of the settlement proceeds of the BlueCross Rezulin action.

For the foregoing reasons, Lowey Dannenberg Cohen, P.C. in re Rezulin Settlement Fund v. James R. Dugan, II et al., No. 08-cv-00461 should be transferred to Judge Kaplan for consolidation with the MDL Proceeding pursuant to Rule 15.

In conclusion, Judge Karas has granted a temporary restraining order ("TRO") and set it for hearing on January 31, 2008. Given that our substantive response is due January 23, 2008, it would be greatly appreciated if your Honors could notify counsel expeditiously of your decision on this request, so that responsive pleadings can be filed in the appropriate court and counsel can make appropriate travel arrangements to either White Plains or Manhattan for the TRO hearing.

Application granted. Judge Kaplan will assume responsibility for this case.

Respectfully submitted,

Dane S. Ciolino

Dear Mark:

As per our conversation today, and all the reasons discussed, I am willing to settle our dispute for 1/3 of the total attorney's fees issued in this case. You stated that the attorney's fees will be coming out of the 5 million allocated in Article 3- Terms Relating To Rezulin Paragraph 1 Page 3 of the agreement which specifically authorizes $5,000,000.00 to be paid to you and Richard Cohen. In addition, you stated that approximately $300,000 to $500,000 will be going to Blue Cross Blue Shield of Louisiana and Eastern States Health and Welfare Fund as an award to dismiss their appeals. Consequently the total attorney's fees subject to this agreement are approximately 4.5 million to 4.7 million. My demand is for 1/3 of that amount or 1.5 million.

If you have any questions or comment in reference to the above please do not hesitate to call.

With kind personal regards, I am

Very truly yours,

James K. Dugan, II
